

At the shopping centre

It is Saturday morning. Mandy and Angela are in town with Mandy's mother. Angela is staying with Mandy for the weekend, because her parents are away. Her father had to go to London on business, and her mother went along.

They go to the supermarket to buy some groceries. While Mandy's mother is filling the trolley, the girls buy some sweets for the evening. When they get home, they are going to bake. The girls enjoy being together, and they get along very well.

'Business' verður skrivað á talvuna.

Tey, ið hava trupult við staving, venja serliga væl, tey vanligu, stuttu orðini, ið ikki hava strike undir.
