The Strength to Live out your Dreams

Did you know that there are over 150 career options to choose from in the army? Many of them also feature high-tech equipment and hands-on skills training that you can only get in the Army – giving you an edge over your peers in the civilian workforce. This is the perfect time for you to take the next step.

Training

You will become a Soldier after you attend Basic Combat Training (BCT) and complete Advanced Individual Training (AIT) to learn your Army job skills. After that, you'll take part in a variety of Ongoing Training opportunities. You will be physically and mentally prepared to face even the most difficult mission.

Minimum Age: 17+ years old

Be Counselor for an American Summer Camp

The American Summer Camps cater to more than 10 million children. These camps generally exist in beautiful, rural areas, typically including a lake or pool. All camps have one goal in common: to provide a safe, rewarding and positive experience for their campers.

Camp Counselors USA places you at a summer camp that matches your personality, skills and interest. When your camp assignment ends, you are free to travel in the USA for up to 30 days before you return home. Why not hike the Grand Canyon or climb to the top of the Statue of Liberty? The CCUSA program is an ideal way to gain international work experience, make many new friends and have the best summer of your life!

Elves

Are you happy, friendly, outgoing, and a good communicator? Do you like working with people? And would you like to work with Father Christmas in his grotto? You will be required to wear a full elf costume and remain in character at all times. You will meet and greet children and their families, take them to see Santa, take photographs, work on the till, monitor queues and refill Santa's toy sacks. Uniform will be provided by the employer. This is a temporary position for November and December.

Walk the Dog

Dog walking is rewarding but hard work and for those who love the outdoors and dogs, this could be one of the best jobs you'll ever have. But make no mistake this is a real job, not a vacation from one, and we accept nothing less than walking dogs professionally.

Keys to success at Downtown Pets are:

- 1 A love for dogs and animals in general.
- 2 The ability to receive feedback and not repeat mistakes.
- 3 An interest in dog training and dog psychology.
- 4 The ability to maintain a schedule and be organized.
- 5 Good communication skills.
- 6 Taking a personal interest in seeing your dogs do well.

Be an SCA Crew Member

The world is calling. Not everyone hears the call and fewer respond to it. Are YOU ready to answer?

As an SCA Nation crew member you will build hiking trails, protect threatened habitats, sleep under the stars and connect to the land in ways you never thought possible. You will share this experience with other high school crew members and two experienced adult leaders. You will make new friends, some perhaps for a lifetime. The work you do will endure, making an important difference in our national parks and forests. Crew assignments typically run anywhere from three to five weeks, so you will need at least a month during which you are available to serve.

In the SCA Community Programs you can meet others who share your conservation ethics and make a significant contribution to the community where you live.
